

Policy on Project Overseas Bank Accounts

Overseas Rotary Clubs or trusted organisations are required to guarantee that funds held and expended by them on behalf of the project are used for sustainable development aid.

Bank accounts overseas cannot be maintained and operated by the Australian Project Manager and Committee.

Breaches of this policy may result in the project being suspended or deregistered.